

Safeguarding Procedure

1. Introduction

1.1 Purpose

- 1.1.1 This document provides staff with information about safeguarding and duty of care in UHI and all partners. It should be read in conjunction with the UHI Shetland Safeguarding Policy.
- 1.1.2 Definitions, context and guidance are provided in order that staff can fulfil their responsibilities and work with their local Safeguarding Lead. Guidance is provided about how to report concerns and disclosures. Additional training will be provided to staff to support these procedures.
- 1.1.3 UHI and all partners operate a system of named Safeguarding Leads, with one in each institution. An up-to-date list of Safeguarding Leads and local Safeguarding Deputies can be found online here.
- 1.1.4 The Safeguarding Leads/Deputies make up the UHI Safeguarding Group. The group meets three times a year normally, or more regularly when the Safeguarding Policy and/or Procedure require to be updated.
- 1.1.5 This procedure outlines proportionate and appropriate responses if staff have any concerns about care, welfare and the safety of a student. If staff have any doubts at all as to whether or not it is a safeguarding issue, they should discuss with their designated Safeguarding Lead or Deputy.

1.2 Definitions

- 1.2.1 UHI and partners: UHI is an integrated university, made up of a distinctive partnership of independent colleges and research institutions. The partners are: UHI Argyll, UHI Inverness, UHI Moray, UHI North West Hebrides, UHI Orkney, UHI Perth, UHI Shetland, Highland Theological College (HTC), Sabhal Mòr Ostaig and Scottish Association for Marine Science (SAMS).

- 1.2.2 Safeguarding is the action we take to promote the welfare of children and vulnerable adults to protect them from harm. This includes making sure we meet our legislative requirements and ensuring the appropriate policies and procedures are put in place. Safeguarding includes child protection but goes further and extends to all vulnerable beneficiaries.
- 1.2.3 Duty of Care is our responsibility to use professional expertise and judgement to protect and promote the best interests of students and staff, and to ensure that we exercise an appropriate level of care towards them, as is reasonable within the parameters of our relationship.
- 1.2.4 Vulnerable Adults: Vulnerable adults or adults at risk are adults who meet all 3 of the below criteria as detailed in the Adult Support and Protection (Scotland) Act 2007:
- That they are unable to safeguard their own well-being, property, rights or other interests;
 - That they are at risk of harm; and
 - That because they are affected by disability, mental disorder, illness or physical or mental infirmity they are more vulnerable to being harmed than adults who are not so affected.
- 1.2.5 Child / Children: As per the Children and Young People (Scotland) Act 2014, UHI Shetland define a 'child' as someone who has not yet attained the age of 18. However, UHI Shetland acknowledges the complexities in some legislation and the need to assess under 18s on an individual basis as per their unique circumstances and needs. UHI Shetland also acknowledges that some children are more vulnerable than others and aim to provide support and take actions based on individual circumstances and needs.
- 1.2.6 Legal obligations: We recognise and comply with our legal and statutory obligations that arise from legislation including the Protection of Children (Scotland) Act 2003, the Adult Support and Protection (Scotland) Act 2007, the Counterterrorism and Security Act 2015, the Children and Young People (Scotland) Act 2014, National Guidance for Child Protection in Scotland 2021, Prevent and CONTEST, and other relevant guidance and regulations.
- 1.2.7 Individual and Corporate Responsibility: Every member of staff has an individual responsibility to ensure the safety and protection of all students and visitors to UHI Shetland, including children and vulnerable adults. The requirement is for staff to respond proactively and protectively to alleged or actual harm. This is not optional.
- Safeguarding involves ensuring the welfare and safety of children and adults at risk, as well as our general duty of care towards students and staff, therefore the procedure applies to all students. Contractors, volunteers and other people working for or with UHI Shetland will also be required to operate within the ethos and parameters of the procedure.
- UHI Shetland relies on members of staff fulfilling their individual responsibility in order to fulfil its corporate responsibility. UHI Shetland will ensure appropriate systems are in place to facilitate confidential reporting, disclosure and addressing of safeguarding concerns by staff. Senior staff are open to feedback in order to improve the process.
- 1.2.8 Corporate parenting: UHI Shetland has responsibilities as a corporate parent under the Children and Young People (Scotland) Act 2014.

1.2.9 Confidentiality – Confidentiality relates to a set of controls on the use and disclosure of information. These controls are not absolute. Information that is ‘confidential’ should always be handled with care and attention, noting the limits of the confidentiality and any conditions on the use or sharing of that information. To keep information ‘confidential’ means an institution will not share any data or information provided by students, unless in exceptional circumstances. There are some cases where UHI XXX cannot guarantee confidentiality (see Section 4). However, UHI XXX will always try to treat any information provided discretely and with sensitivity and respect.

2. Responsibilities of Safeguarding Lead and Deputy

2.1 Overview

2.2.1 UHI Shetland have a named Safeguarding Lead and a Deputy.

2.2.2 In UHI Shetland the Safeguarding Lead is supported by X1Safeguarding Deputy. The specific duties of the Safeguarding Lead and Deputy are set out below.

2.2.3 Safeguarding Lead Key Responsibilities

- The Safeguarding Lead has ultimate responsibility for when to refer out to Police Scotland and other agencies. The Safeguarding Lead is responsible for providing general updates to senior members of staff about safeguarding in their institution and will inform a senior member of staff about significant referrals out before (or as soon as practical after) they occur. Safeguarding Leads should note that informing senior members of staff is not a prerequisite of referring out and should not delay an urgent referral.

- Where appropriate and required, guide staff on students with a known risk and risk plan.

3. Reporting and Escalation

3.1. Overview

3.1.1 If a student who is a child or vulnerable adult makes a disclosure you must report it. If you have concerns about a student, you should report it using the Safeguarding Reporting Form. If staff have any doubts at all as to whether or not to report an issue, they should discuss it with the Safeguarding Lead.

3.1.2 In general, as a member of staff you should not:

- Make promises you cannot keep.
- Make the person repeat the story unnecessarily
- Delay
- Panic
- Investigate the matter

3.1.3 Should you have cause to report a concern or a disclosure, you should use the Safeguarding Reporting Form (see Appendix 2). It is important to fill the form out in as much detail as possible, but only fill out the relevant sections.

3.1.4 If you have a concern you wish to discuss with the Safeguarding Lead, you can do so face-to-face. A Safeguarding Reporting Form can be filled out after the discussion.

3.1.5 All staff members must fill out Section A of the form. Remember to maintain strict confidentiality and store the form and any information relating to it securely.

3.2. Recognising and reporting a concern for or about a student

3.2.1 If you have concerns for or about a student, you should complete Section B.

3.2.2 Through day-to-day contact with students, staff are well placed to observe outward symptoms of abnormality or change in appearance, behaviour, learning pattern or development. Such symptoms could be due to a wide variety of causes including mental ill-health, bereavement, changes in family circumstances, drug, alcohol or solvent misuse and relationship problems. Sometimes, however, they could be due to harm.

Concerns regarding the protection of children or adults at risk may arise because:

- A child or adult at risk discloses that they are being harmed.
- There are suspicions or indicators that a child or adult at risk could be being harmed.
- There are observable changes in the behaviour of a child or adult at risk that could relate to harm.
- The behaviour of a member of staff towards a child or adult at risk causes concern or there is a suspicion that a staff member or volunteer is harming a child or adult at risk.

Possible signs of harm include:

- Bruises and injuries with which the explanation given seems inconsistent.
- Possible indicators of neglect, such as inadequate clothing, poor growth, hunger, poor hygiene.
- Possible indicators of emotional harm, such as excessive dependence; attention seeking; self-harming.
- Possible indicators of sexual harm – physical signs such as bruises, scratches or bite marks; or behavioural signs such as precocity, withdrawal or inappropriate sexual behaviour.

Other possible signs are:

- Withdrawn behaviour.
- Agitated or anxious behaviour.
- A student being isolated by other students or isolating themselves from fellow students.
- Nervousness when approached.
- Inappropriate or improper dress.
- Appearing unkempt or unwashed.
- Being overly anxious to please.
- Signs of discomfort or pain.
- Frequent absences for admission to hospital.
- Atypical incidence of absence from scheduled teaching events.
- Uncharacteristic changes in the child or adult at risk's behaviour, attitude and commitment e.g. becoming quiet and withdrawn, or displaying sudden outbursts of temper.
- Inappropriate sexual awareness or behaviour.
- Fear of particular adults or students – especially those with whom a close relationship would normally be expected.
 - o Children or adults at risk being reluctant to go home.

3.2.3 It is important to note there are often very powerful and persuasive reasons for a victim not to report harm:

- Emotional/psychological factors, and threats made by perpetrators.
- The perpetrator may be powerful, very significant and close to the individual such as a family member or carer.
- The experience of harm may show in changes in behaviour or in the person's appearance as described above.

- 3.2.4 Changes to behaviour which is atypical of the person is the key. Behaviour which is noted as a significant change in their usual presentation and functioning as an individual should be a cause for concern and further investigation.
- 3.2.5 You should also use this section if you have concerns about a student that could lead to them harming themselves or others.
- 3.2.6 When you have completed Section B, you should pass the form to the Safeguarding Lead. Where possible please send it electronically via email.
- 3.2.7 The police or other third parties may want to speak to you about the concern you have reported. This is normal and you should not be worried if the Safeguarding Lead lets you know someone wishes to talk to you.

3.3. Recognising and reporting a disclosure from a student

- 3.3.1 If a student has made a disclosure to you, you should complete Section C.
- 3.3.2 If a child or adult at risk tells you they are being harmed, as a member of staff you should:
- Be honest and transparent with the person making the disclosure in relation to your professional responsibilities. Make it clear that you will have to share information with appropriate others.
 - Allow the person to speak without interruption.
 - Listen to what the person says and show that you take them seriously.
 - Stay calm – do not rush into inappropriate action.
 - Reassure the person – confirm that you know it must be difficult to confide.
 - Ensure that you clearly understand what has been said so that you can refer the matter to the Safeguarding Lead.
 - Keep questions strictly to a minimum. If you must ask questions, use open ended questions i.e. those where more than a yes or no response is required. Make sure that you do not use leading questions or suggest words.
 - Record information in the relevant documentation.
 - Consult with the Safeguarding Lead ensuring that you communicate all the information accurately.
- 3.3.3 When you have completed Section C, you should pass the form to the Safeguarding Lead. Where possible please send it electronically via email.
- 3.3.4 The police or other third parties may want to speak to you about the disclosure you have reported. This is normal and you should not be worried if the Safeguarding Lead lets you know someone wishes to talk to you.

3.4. Recognising and reporting concerns about someone responsible for students

- 3.4.1 If you have concerns about someone responsible for students (e.g. a member of staff or volunteer), you should complete Section D.
- 3.4.2 The types of issue that may lead you to making a report could include:
- Hearing someone use inappropriate or suggestive language around students.
 - Seeing someone behaving towards students in a way that transgresses professional boundaries.

- Someone telling you something about someone responsible for students that makes you suspicious.
- 3.4.3 When you have completed Section D, you should pass the form to the Safeguarding Lead. Where possible please send it electronically via email.
- 3.4.4 If the report concerns a member of staff, Human Resources will be involved at an appropriate point.
- 3.5. What happens next?
- 3.5.1 When you pass the form to the Safeguarding Lead they will complete Section E. They may contact you with follow-up questions related to the information on the Reporting Form.
- 3.5.2 The Safeguarding Lead will liaise with you about the issue as and when they can. Some issues may require confidential and extensive discussions with external organisations in order to protect the person who has been harmed.

4. Confidentiality

- 4.1 Confidentiality relates to a set of controls on the use and disclosure of information. These controls are not absolute. Information that is confidential should always be handled with care and attention, noting the limits of the confidentiality and any conditions on the use or disclosure of that information.

In most cases, confidentiality can be thought of in terms of being a 'threshold'. Where the purpose of sharing the information falls under the threshold, then the full controls apply to the information. In some cases there will be a specific purpose for using/Sharing the information that is so important that it exceed the normal confidentiality 'threshold' (for example, a disclosure necessary to save a person's life). In such cases, the information (limited to what is necessary) may be used for the extraordinary purpose even where this use would be outwith the ordinary controls associated with the confidentiality. Even where such an extraordinary disclosure is made the information does not cease to be confidential and should be controlled as such. This is particularly relevant in safeguarding contexts.

- 4.2 Safeguarding is not a matter of consent. UHI Shetland recognise the importance of confidentiality in support contexts, though UHI Shetland cannot always guarantee confidential information will not be shared and we should understand and explain the limits of confidentiality to service users. Staff will treat sensitive information with care and keep disclosures confidential within the institution, as far as possible. This means information may be shared on a need-to-know basis without the student's consent to relevant internal teams or staff, or as required with the UHI Shetland Safeguarding Team. This will enable UHI Shetland to maintain safety and provide robust support. If there is reason to share student information externally with agencies such as Police Scotland or Social Work, UHI Shetland aim to do this with the student's consent. However, in certain circumstances it may be required to do this without consent. This includes, but is not limited to, if UHI Shetland are aware of; an immediate and/or significant risk of harm, a risk of harm to a child or an 'adult at risk' (including from themselves), existence of a third-party mandate, or where a disclosure is otherwise required by relevant legislation.

- 4.2 It should be explained to the student that staff will take notes about what they disclose.
- 4.3 It is important that students are made aware of UHI Shetland's information sharing responsibilities as early as possible in their disclosure journey, to enable them to make an informed decision about what they wish to share. Establishing trust is key in making the student feel comfortable and safe, but staff should not make promises they cannot keep (such as saying "this will stay between you and me"). Whilst confidentiality is extremely important given the sensitive and high-risk nature of any safeguarding concern, it can never be guaranteed that information will never be shared, and safeguarding is not a matter of consent.

4.4 Sharing information without consent

- 4.4.1 Any referral and sharing of information to an external agency will be done through the Safeguarding Lead or Deputy.
- 4.4.2 Students should always be made aware of any sharing of their information with an external agency and/or to the Safeguarding Lead/Deputy, unless there is a good and lawful reason not to tell them. This includes informing the student what information will be shared, why, and to whom.
- 4.4.3 Any Safeguarding disclosure about an under 18 or a vulnerable adult MUST be referred to the Safeguarding Lead, as per the above procedure.
- 4.4.4 Wherever possible, information should not be shared out with the individual academic partner with another academic partner. However, this should not be a barrier to sharing safeguarding information which may impact the individual or other students and there may be instances where it is appropriate for information to be shared. Where safeguarding information about an individual is held by an external agency (such as Police Scotland, Social Work, NHS) the lead academic partner should direct the other academic partner's Safeguarding Lead to that agency / key contact.
- 4.4.5 Whilst Clinical or counselling staff may hold higher levels of risk than other staff, they should always follow the Safeguarding policy and procedures and refer any disclosures as appropriate.
The BACP Ethical Framework for the Counselling Professions (Section 55, Confidentiality) provides further guidance to counselling professionals on this. Please see Appendix 1.

5. Other Safeguarding and Duty of Care Areas

5.1. Adult students who disclose childhood abuse

- 5.1.1 Staff in any organisation who work in a supportive capacity with adults may experience disclosures. In an educational setting this would be from our adult students who, perhaps for the first time, feel able to talk about harm they suffered as children. This will be a significant step for the person making the disclosure. These incidents are unlikely to represent a current safeguarding concern, but similar principles apply:

- Allow the person to speak without interruption.
- Listen to what the person says and show that you take them seriously.
- Stay calm – do not rush into inappropriate action.
- Reassure the person – confirm that you know it must be difficult to confide.
- Ensure that you clearly understand what has been said
- Keep questions strictly to a minimum. If you must ask questions, use open ended questions i.e., those where more than a yes/no response is required. Make sure that you do not use leading questions or suggest words.

5.1.2 The adult may wish to make contact with police about the disclosure. Should this be the case, staff may provide support to the student to help them make contact with the police.

5.2. Adults who disclose ongoing abuse or harm

5.2.1 Staff may experience disclosures from adults who are experiencing ongoing abuse or harm. Staff should provide support to the student using the following principles:

- Allow the person to speak without interruption.
- Listen to what the person says and show that you take them seriously.
- Stay calm – do not rush into inappropriate action.
- Reassure the person – confirm that you know it must be difficult to confide.
- Ensure that you clearly understand what has been said
- Keep questions strictly to a minimum. If you must ask questions, use open ended questions i.e., those where more than a yes/no response is required. Make sure that you do not use leading questions or suggest words.

5.2.2 Staff should signpost to relevant external organisations and provide support to the student to access support if necessary. The student may wish to make contact with police about the disclosure. Should this be the case, staff may provide support to the student to help them make contact with the police.

5.2.3 If the disclosure is in relation to gender based violence, staff should refer to the Gender Based Violence Guidance and support the student accordingly.

5.3 Student criminal offence data disclosure

5.3.1 UHI Shetland recognise the transformative power of education and do not consider criminal convictions and offences or related security measures to be insurmountable barriers to learning. Where possible, we are committed to supporting those with spent and unspent criminal convictions in our communities as part of their rehabilitation.

5.3.2 We encourage all applicants and students to disclose information about any criminal convictions or police proceedings which may affect their ability to complete key aspects of their programme or placement. This includes personal restrictions or other conditions arising from court orders or parole conditions e.g., travel, contact with others and use of equipment. Please refer to the Student Criminal Offence Data Policy for further information.

5.4 School Students attending UHI Shetland

- 5.4.1 If a school pupil discloses an issue that that has taken place within UHI Shetland the Safeguarding Lead will investigate the issue, working collaboratively with the school's child protection officer to support the pupil accordingly.
- 5.4.2 If a school pupil discloses an issue that that has taken place outwith UHI Shetland the Safeguarding Lead will liaise with the school's child protection officer in order to facilitate an investigation by the school. The Safeguarding Lead should seek assurance the issue is being dealt with, and if there is any doubt make a referral to the appropriate authority.
- 5.4.3 If a school pupil due to attend UHI SHetland presents a risk to staff or students, the school should notify UHI Shetland if necessary, a risk assessment can be carried out and a decision can be made regarding whether the student should be offered a place on the course.
- 5.4.4 Where teaching staff are required to record the attendance of school pupils who are attending classes, any absenteeism will be reported to the relevant school in order that they can take appropriate action in the interests of safeguarding.

◆ Nurseries in UHI Shetland

- 5.5.1 Nurseries and childcare facilities on premises have local procedures and relevant legislation should be followed at all times.

5.6 Prevent and CONTEST

- 5.6.1 The Prevent strategy is part of the wider counter-terrorism strategy known as CONTEST, it aims to safeguard people from becoming radicalised or supporting terrorism. Prevent addresses all forms of terrorism and includes the radicalisation of others and associated grooming behaviours, thus ensuring our communities and families are not exploited or groomed into following a path of violent extremism
- 5.6.2 Prevent has three objectives:
1. Tackle the causes of radicalisation and respond to the ideological challenge of terrorism
 2. Safeguarding and support those most at risk of radicalisation through early intervention, identifying them and offering support
 3. Enable those who have already engaged in terrorism to disengage and rehabilitate
- 5.6.3 An integral part of Prevent's success is involving people who already have the skill and support to allow them to recognise when someone may be becoming involved in or supporting terrorism and can help make a decision not to carry on that path, before any crime is committed.
- 5.6.4 Radicalisation is the process where someone has their vulnerabilities or susceptibilities exploited towards crime or terrorism – most often by a third party, who have their own agenda.

5.6.5 Changes or behaviours to be vigilant of include, but are not limited to:

Emotional changes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Short tempered - Angry - New found arrogance - Withdrawn - Depressed - Crying 	Verbal Changes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Fixated on a subject - Closed to new ideas/conversations - Change in language/use of words - Asking inappropriate questions - “Scripted” speech - Saying inappropriate things – a call to action 	Physical/Circumstantial: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Extreme right-wing tattoos - Use of internet - Change of routine - New circle of friends - Absent - Letting themselves go (in terms of appearance)
